The friends of Mr. Parnell are advis-ing him not to accept the offer of the freedom of Edinburgh since it was op-posed by so large a minority. They think that at any rate he ought to wait until the commission pronounces its verdict upon the Irish leader's case. The honor has lost so much of its value because of the lack of unanimity on the part of the donors that it is thought wise for Mr. Parnell to decline it for the present, which course it is bolleved he will pursue.

the Parnell Commission, will shortly relinquish the management of the London Times, and that his place will be filled by the son of Mr. Walter, the proprietor. Although it is said that this step has nothing to do with the commission, it is an accepted fact that some one connected with the Times' fatal error must be made the scapegoat, in order to silence the clamors of the Times' stockholders, whose diminished receipts call forth bitter complaints.

Captain Shaw, chief of the London Fire Department, is just now having a tilt with the County Council. He asks the modest sum of 52,000 pounds for use in the prevention of fires and the council do not feel disposed to grant any such amount. The council, which is new, is going at things in a lively manner and promises to investigate matters thoroughly before making any grants of money.

A FAMOUS INSTITUTION.

Journal writes as follows from Buffalo, N. Y.:

"Editor of Journals—Thinking that it might interest some of your readers and make good my promise to you at the same time. I will write a few fines concerning the famous World's Dispensary and Invallal's Hotel and Surgical Institute. Let me at first discisin any selfish motive or desire to accertise or suff this or any industry. Thousands of dollars are expended every month to keep the merits of this Institution before the world and its managers sak for

NO FREE ADVERTISEMENTS.

A healthier or more convenient city for those afflicted could not have been selected, in which to place such an institution than Buffalo, N. Y. But concerning the city and its attractions I will write in some future letter. The World's Dispensary Medical Association occupies two large and magnificent buildings upon Main and Washington Streets, and a branch Dispensary at No. 3 New Oxford Street, London, England. The Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute fronts Main Street and is attractive and elegant both inside and outside. Although it is or decelt. A large and well-appointed drug room in the basement of the Hotel contains all of the medicines and chemicals used by physicians and is in charge of authorized and skilled pharmacists and apothecaries. Each case is prescribed for according to the same rules and laws which govern any intelligent dector when writing a prescription for his patient. There is no restriction used with the physicians in the Institution, and they have the whole domain of Materia Medicato choose from. The proprietary medicines are p. m. dany and proposition only 11:40 a. m. dany and 7:05 p. m. week days.

On Sundays, 4:10, 6:30, 8:30, 9:12 (Congressional limited), 10:35 p. m. On Sundays, 5:55 of the physician (to whom the formulas are known) they are indicated. Many, and, in fact, every physician of any experience, has found some remedles or combination of drugs to do good work in a certain class of cases. Hence he writes the same prescrip-tion over and over again till the druggist knows it by heart and smiles when he looks at it. But it is none the less valuable for all at it. But it is none the less valuable for all that, and the physician who knows its value does not feel condemned for writing it, and would feel hurt and stoutly defend it if he should be criticised for its frequent repetition. The doctor writing said prescription does not pretend that it will cure everything or that it applies to every case. Upon this principle Dr. Pierce has (with much greater experience than ordinary physicians) devised, compounded and thoroughly tested A FEW PRESCRIPTIONS of remedies which in certain cases are

than it is for a physician to get some one to write an item for the paper telling about his skill in performing a surgical operation. I have seen an old physician who was a stickier as regards medical codes and professional etiquette, stop the editor of his local paper on the street and tell him how ill ex diovernor X was, and he had just given him a pill or put a plaster on his back. The Doctor knew the newspaper would contain the news of his being called to see the ex-diovernor in its next issue. But nevertheless he shudders when he sees a legitimate advertisement which has been paid for. The people of this country are familiar with the portrait of R. V. Pierce, M. D. The Doctor would be readily recognized by any one who had seen his portrait. His head is large and well orbed, and ability and enterprise are stamped upon his features and inovenents. Starting without faime or fortune he is to-day the widest known medical man of the age. The fact that he resigned his seat in Congress to aftend to his yeat business speaks louder than words of his interest and devotion to his profession. Patients from the most distant states arrive daily for treatment at the Invalid's Hotol and Sucgical Institute. The World's Dispensary, which fronts Washington street, is

A GHEAT BUXE OF INDUSTRY.

"Here the proprietary medicines are put up and the printing and binding done.

*Here the proprietary medicines are put up and the printing and binding done. Fourteen large presses, driven by power, with numerous folding, trimming, cutting and stitching machines are constantly running in this department. Here the famous 'Common Sense Medical Advisor' is printed, over 330,000 copies of which have been seld. Everybody in Maine is familiar with the Memorandum Books from the World's Dispensary. To speak of each floor with its works and uses would make too long an article. Some idea of the magnitude of the business can be had when it is known that there are nearly three hundred persons employed in the two buildings. It is a strong recommendation for any man or business to be popular athome. It is putting it mildly when it is said that the Institution is popular in Buffalo, and both it and its Chief honored and loved by the Inhabitants of the great Metropolis of the Lakes."
